Brown-tipped Redwoods?

Many people have asked SE&M about the brown needles and overall condition of the Coast Redwoods (Sequoia sempervirens) in the Panofsky Grove. After having a branch and soil sample analyzed by an outside laboratory, Liam Robinson reports that they are not diseased, but are drought stressed. Liam has implemented a deep watering program coupled with fertilizer applications and expects improvement soon. The Redwoods will now be under the careful observation of Karen Stidd, Certified Arborist.

Snowmass Report

The New York Times article on the Snowmass meeting has some good quotes from Jonathan Dorfan and Peter Rosen, DOE's Office of Science.

Riders Remember Helmets

On site scooter riders are required to wear a scooter helmet. Bicyclists are strongly urged by ES&H to wear a bike helmet. Both types of helmets are available from Stores.

Windows NT crashed.
I am the Blue Screen of Death.
No one hears your screams.

Yesterday it worked.
Today it is not working.
Windows is like that.

Three things are certain:
Death, taxes and lost data.
Guess which has occurred.

BAM! POW! ZOOM!

Check out this Stanford Magazine article about Kelley Puckett, Stanford alum and creator and writer of the new Batgirl comic book series. Unfortunately, it does not satisfy the inevitable curiosity about what he studied at Stanford that might have helped him create the 6th most popular monthly comic in the DC Comics series of 90 titles.
