Flu Flash

Medical announces that it is temporarily out of the flu vaccine. They expect to have more available the first week in December or call ext. 2281 for an update.

Know the Future

On Monday, Nov. 26 at 4:15 pm (refreshments at 3:45), Professor Barry Barish of Caltech will speak on, "A Roadmap for the Future U.S. HEP Program" in the Panofsky Auditorium. According to Greg Loew, Barry will be discussing the soon to be released report of the HEPAP sub-panel, which outlines our physics future for the next twenty years.

Catch the Cows

Looking for something different to do this weekend after Turkey Day? One SLAC-er reports that there is a display of exuberantly artistic cows throughout Sonoma, similar to the Chicago displays but all made by local artists. There's even a "COWS! Hot Pursuit Contest" for those wanting to track down the critters. Visit the Sonoma Events website, choose either November or December and look for further information under the heading: "COWS".

Debunking Made Easy

Subtitled "The Bunk Stops Here", Purportal.com provides search access to "five of the Web's leading debunking sites": Snopes; About.com's Urban Legends; CIAC; CERT; and Symantec's (Real) Virus Encyclopedia. It includes links to other sites about hoaxes, frauds, rumors, and false virus scares. Now there is no excuse not to check that warning out before you forward it.

Travel Advice for Everyone

While titled "Tips for Women Traveling Solo", this Fodor.com site has great tips - particularly on traveler safety - for everyone.

FleaMarket

You can post your classified ad using the SLAC FleaMarket Submission form. You can get to the current ads from the Announcements section on the SLAC Home Page. These pages can be viewed from computers within the SLAC domain.
