New Quick News Editor

Many of you have given me informative, timely and sometimes humorous items for Quick News. I really appreciated all your help. The next issue of Quick News will be edited by Kathy Bellevin, Communications Managing Editor. If you have items to include, please email them to her at: kathyb@SLAC.Stanford.EDU.

Fixing the Flora

Over the summer, many people have commented on the number of dying trees and bushes at SLAC as well as what has been expressed as a general decline in the beauty of our landscape. SLAC staff are working closely with our contract landscaping company to reverse this situation. The trees removed from construction sites have been given a new home along Sand Hill Road. Other improvements are being made so that SLAC will look its best by the time we celebrate the 40th Anniversary SLAC Family Day on September 14 and the 40th Anniversary Celebration on October 2.

What's Hot and What's Not

The latest edition of the Top Cited HEP Articles is available on the Library's Website. Along with the lists of top-cited HEP articles in 2001 and all-time top-cited articles, is Michael Peskin's popular and thought provoking review.

A Healthy (?) Field Trip

Wine lectures by our expert tour guide on the way there, the opportunity to visit a spectrum of unusual wineries as well as to 'physic' your system with a little red wine, and, finally, the now-traditional movie with a wine theme or setting on the way home. Sound like fun? Reserve your place on the 3rd Annual Wine Tour.

A Safer Sand Hill

The Menlo Park City Council approved a set of changes that would significantly improve traffic and bicycle safety on Sand Hill Road. Several SLAC'ers spoke at the meeting or sent letters to the Council in support of these changes.
