Will Theory Triumph Over Experiment?

The SLAC Theory vs. Experiment Annual Softball Game begins at 2:00 pm on Saturday, September 28. The game will be at Roble Field on the Stanford Campus (near intersection of Santa Theresa St. and Governor's Ave.). A Victory Celebration follows in the same location around 4:00 pm. To join a team or for more information, contact JoAnne Hewett (Theory) or Mike Woods (Experiment).

Important Parking Information for 40th Celebration

On October 2, thousands of people will descend on The Green for the most important event we've ever held. Luckily, there's a plan in place for parking and traffic. But we need your help to make the day go smoothly. Check out the Parking and Traffic plan on the 40th Anniversary Web site and you won't be caught off guard.

40th Celebration to be Webcast

Thanks to the hard work of Brooks Collins (SCS), SLAC will be broadcasting a live video stream of the October 2 event. (If you go to the page now you'll get a moving logo that gives the date of the Webcast.)

Pledge Your Support

Looking to do some good? The Making Strides Against Breast Cancer Walk is coming up and the walkers need your pledge. Ken Martell, along with 13 more SLAC employees, will be walking on Sunday, Oct. 27. You can make a pledge, or buy a long-sleeved, gray T-shirt with the SLAC logo. Similar T-shirts were hot sellers last year. The deadline to order T-shirts is Friday, October 4; all sizes are $12.00 except for XX-Large that sell for $13.00. To make a pledge or order a T-shirt, contact Maria Concepción Zelaya at ext. 2603.

FleaMarket

You can post your classified ad using the SLAC FleaMarket Submission form.
