40th Anniversary Photo Book Coming Your Way

The SLAC 40th Anniversary Commemorative Photo Book should be arriving at SLAC in the third week of October. All SLAC staff will receive a copy, including those who did not sign up for one earlier. The books will likely be distributed during several lunch hours with special arrangements for Owl and Swing shift personnel. External invitees to the Celebration will be mailed a copy in November.

SLAC Through a New Lens

One of the many highlights of last week's 40th Anniversary Celebration was an exhibition of photographs taken by award-winning photographer Peter Ginter. The photographs are now being shown as an online exhibit on SLAC's Web site.

"SLAC: The Movie" Coming Back Soon

You may have had trouble this week accessing the streaming video SLAC: The Movie. In fact, the video is currently being revised and will be re-released in a few days. Check back soon for this video and other new materials from the event on the 40th Anniversary Web area.

Let Loose Your Inner Computer Guru

Stanford's Computer-Based Training program offers a wide range of online, self-paced courses from basic Internet skills to Web publishing, database design, Java programming and project management. All you need is a SUNet ID to access these courses.

Cool Link of the Week: eResources

If you're new to the Bay Area, or just haven't gotten out enough lately, the SLAC Library eResources area maintains links to regional parks, events lists and other attractions.
