Traffic Update -- How Long Will the Detour Last?

The answer: until the end of February. Crews are installing the electrical and gas connections for the new Guest House. As always, make sure to pay careful attention to people, cars and all signage when driving around the Lab.

New Computing Page Debuts

The folks at SCS have been working hard to develop a new Web page where you'll find everything you need to know about computing at SLAC. Give the new Computing page a try and send your feedback using the form at the bottom of the page.

Upcoming Talk: "Women and Minorities Needed in Science and Technology"

Arthur Bienenstock, Director of Stanford's Geballe Laboratory of Advanced Materials, will discuss the consequences to the nation of failing to increase the participation of women and minorities in our scientific, technological and professional workforce. The lecture will take place on February 26 at the Oak East Lounge, Tresidder Student Union, Stanford University, from 12 Noon to 1 p.m.

Next WIS Seminar: "A Conspiracy of Caring"

Nancy Fomenko, Director of Community Education at the Support Network for Battered Women, will be speaking next week about domestic violence. This special seminar will take place in the Fuji Room, Building 214 (next to the Computer Center), on Tuesday, February 25, 2003, from 12 Noon to 1 p.m. Visit the seminar Web page to learn what donations you can bring to help women and children in our community.

Come Get a New SLAC Poster

A new poster highlighting SLAC science is available from the Communications Office. The poster will be given to staff, visitors, schools—anyone who would like to display it. Stop by the office of Joni White, Building 40, Room G106 if you'd like a poster for your office.
