Kids Day this Tuesday, July 15

Kids Day Reminder: The Big Day is this Tuesday, July 15th. All workshops are filled. Check-in is at 8:30 a.m. in the Auditorium Breezeway. The Kids Day Team and Workshop Leaders look forward to welcoming future Scientists and those who will be Scientists for a day!

Heart Cards Still Available

Have you gotten your Heart Card yet? The first 100 free cards were gone within four days, but don’t let that stop you from taking charge of your own health. Heart Cards are still available at only $2.75 -- that's less than the Golden Gate Bridge toll. The card lets you confidentially monitor your own blood pressure, pulse, weight, height and body mass index. So take a brisk walk to the Medical Dept. (A&E Bldg., Room 135) to get your heart card and continue on the road to Healthy People 2010.

Connoisseurs' Marketplace — Volunteers Needed

Join us by volunteering at the 17th annual Connoisseurs' Marketplace, a street fair celebration of the arts, next Saturday, July 19. SLAC will be manning a soda booth (passing soda cans out to thirsty patrons) and we need volunteers from 3 pm to 6 pm. This is a great opportunity to participate in the Menlo Park community and check out local art, music, food, and more. Contact Emily Ball (emily.ball@slac.stanford.edu, x2620) for more information.
